New Series, Political Discussion Highlights Week's TV Shows

By JOHN BARRY
TV Editor of the Press

Suspicion, beachcombing, a documentary on communism, a step into the unknown and discussion of President Kennedy's domestic program, are the highlights of this week's television format.

DISAPPEARANCE

"Bury Me Twice," starring Dan O'Herlihy, Phyllis Thaxter and Leo G. Carroll, will present a case of mysterious disappearance and suspicion of murder on Channel 2, KNTV-TV, Wednesday at 10 p.m.

The drama on the U. S. Steel Hour, will be seen "live." Play was adapted by Charles Robinson from a play by Brian Clemens. Tom Donovan will direct the play, which is produced by Theatre Guild, George Kondolf, executive producer.

BEACHCOMBER

A new series, "The Beachcomber," starring Cameron Mitchell, debuted last night on KTTV, Channel 11. The weekly tale appears each Saturday at 8 p.m.

"Beachcomber" is a story of a man who does what most of us dream of doing, but never do. Mitchell stars as John Lackland, San Francisco advertising executive, who takes off on a life of adventure in the South Seas.

Others in the cast are Adam West as Huckabee, Barbara

Luna as Dolly and Howard Morris as Murney.

Another KTTV program Monday from 8 to 11 p.m., will bring the giant rally "Hollywood's Answer to Communism," to television. The rally, presented as a special independent "network," will come direct from the Hollywood Bowl.

ONE STEP BEYOND

Channel 11 will present intriguing and bizarre tales of the unknown beginning Friday at 8 p.m., when "One Step Beyond" premieres. John Newland will host-narrate each program. Many personalities of stage, screen and television will appear in each 30-minute episode.

"The Nation's Future," regular NBC-TV presentation will bring a discussion of achievements and disappointments of President Kennedy's domestic program today from 5 to 6 p.m.

POLITICAL ISSUES

Title of the program will be "The Administration's Domestic Record: Success or Failure?" Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Abraham A. Ribicoff

EASY TO CLEAN

Because it is hard, tough and corrosion-resistant, nickel stainless steel is one of the easiest materials to keep clean, and, if given proper care its attractive finish will last indefinitely.

will argue that the administration's accomplishments have been considerable.

Taking the opposite side, arguing the Kennedy program has come far short of a "new frontier," will be Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, (R-Ill.) "Nation's Future" is presented every fifth Sunday. Edwin Newman is moderator.

Looking ahead to next Sunday, the birthday of artist Pablo Picasso, who will be 80, will be saluted over Channel 4. Program will be from 5 to 5:30 p.m.

In the 30-minute program Picasso will be seen painting, sculpting and drawing.

Filming was done in his authority and curator of Worcester Art Museum, will come to Torrance, noted artist of the Torrance area, on Picasso's paintings.
